

Tasmanian Public Health Emergencies Management Plan

The Tasmanian Public Health Emergencies Management Plan is a State Special Plan authored and maintained by the DHHS on behalf of the State Emergency Management Committee that describes the current governance and coordination arrangements, and roles and responsibilities in response to a public health emergency.

- Tasmanian Public Health Emergencies Management Plan - Issue 2

The following document is publically available:

- Major Outbreaks Associate Plan
- Heatwave Incident Associate Plan

The following documents are not publically available:

- PHEOC Management Protocol
- Drinking Water Supply Incident Associate Plan
- Recreational Water Incident Associate Plan
- Radioactive Materials Incident Associate Plan
  - Radiation Protection Unit SOP
  - Senior Health Physicist Response Tool
  - Radiation Protection Unit Response Tool - Environmental Monitoring
  - Radiation Protection Unit Response Tool - Health Physics Aspects
- Food Safety Incident Associate Plan
  - Food Safety Memorandum of Understanding
  - Intentional Contamination of Food SOP